BY USING A

time the revolving brush picks up all lint, pins, thread, ravelings, etc.

WOLF CREEK.

(Special Correspondence.)

Kind Editor, as I didn't get around last week will try to be on time this week.

Isn't this lovely weather now?
And my, how the grass is growing! We ought to be so grateful that we are permitted to have such nice things and for health and strength.

How sad we have been made to learn of the death of Mrs. Gaskill and how sad it is for Mr.
Gaskill and those dear children to have to give up dear mama and we do sympathize with them in their troubles.

Was very sorry to learn of our friend, Mr. Handy, getting so badly hurt, also Mr. Keeling and we are made to realize how uncertain it is for us here on this earth. But thanks be to God that he has promised all who will accept him as their Savior and will take up their cross and follow him daily a home where all will be peace and joy and gladness and our troubles will all be over.

Doesn't it look good to see the farmer out plowing these lovely spring days and hear him sing about the good old summer time?

Ira Young, Dick Kirk and E-men Sikes went to Rockbridge after shingles last week to cover Mrs. Young's barn.

Spring Valley Sunday school has elected officers for the 2d and 3d quarter.

J. D. Rowland says he is farming some of late. He has two rows of sweet peas and some forget-me-nots planted.

Drue Turner's visited on Wolf Creek Sunday. Drue and Dave Hoover have been trading a little.

Mr. Lakey is plowing on J. D.
Rowland's farm.

Say, you children, don't you get uneasy about You Know's garden. It looks green now and when you come down to get that strawberry shortcake and see the watermelons smiling on the vines then we will get better acquainted.

Sunday school as usual at the old log church every Sunday morning.

Preaching at the Freewill Baptist church every third Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Findley, pastor.
Sunday school at the Holiness church every Sunday. James Iva, superintendent.

Best regards to all.
